

Special Edition IGT 2013 0,75l

The first special edition wine from LaSelva it is "Prima Causa 2013" with an art label created by Lapo Simeoni. His work has been chosen as the label of our limited edition wine. Simeoni is a young Italian artist that lives between Maremma, Berlin and the rest of the world. The work, called Things Left unsaid #1, is the first from various works that speak about the matter's fragmentation. It has been realized with waste materials, recycled and used to create a new object, a work of art that symbolize the renaissance. The fluorescent red color matched with black to arouse emotional vibrations that the spectator could perceive unconsciously or conscientiously. The title born from this effect of suspension. Every bottle is numerated and hand signed by the artist... a work of art in a bottle!

It goes with Fiorentina steak, black pepper fillet, lamb, vegetable pie. Serve at 18°C

A very complex, elegant nose, with dark berry fruit well amalgamated with hints of roast flavors. The palate is firm and complex, as well as vibrant and succulent.
